

Borbidge wants election inquiry

Sam Strutt - Australian Financial Review 14/8/00

The legitimacy of the Queensland Government has been called into question as the State Opposition demands an enquiry into the 1998 election result after the jailing of a former Labor Party candidate for electoral fraud. The Opposition Leader, Mr Rob Borbidge, said yesterday the activities that lead to the jailing of the former candidate for the north Queensland seat of Thuringowa, Karen Ehrmann, could have a bearing on the outcome of the poll.
